

Team Contributions: Final Software Engineering

Team 8, RLCatan
Rebecca Di Filippo
Jake Read
Matthew Cheung
Sunny Yao

This document summarizes the contributions of each team member for the final demonstration and documentation.

1 Team Meeting Attendance

Student	Meetings
Total	4
Jake Read	4
Sunny Yao	4
Rebecca Di Filippo	4
Matthew Cheung	4

Most of team communication was done asynchronously via our project channel, so fewer formal meetings were needed.

2 Supervisor/Stakeholder Meeting Attendance

Supervisor's Name: Istvan David

Student	Meetings
Total	5
Jake Read	5
Sunny Yao	5
Rebecca Di Filippo	5
Matthew Cheung	5

3 Lecture Attendance

Student	Lectures
Total	1
Jake Read	1
Sunny Yao	0
Rebecca Di Filippo	0
Matthew Cheung	0

Jake attended the one lecture and took notes for the rest of the team, who reviewed the lecture materials on their own time.

4 TA Document Discussion Attendance

TA's Name: Tiago de Moraes Machado

Student	Lectures
Total	1
Jake Read	1
Sunny Yao	1
Rebecca Di Filippo	1
Matthew Cheung	1

5 Commits

Student	Commits	Percent
Total	502	100%
Jake Read	125	25%
Sunny Yao	102	20%
Rebecca Di Filippo	192	38%
Matthew Cheung	84	17%

The difference in commits is not indicative of productivity or contribution. It is due to commit styles, where some members choose to commit more often than others.

6 Issue Tracker

Student	Authored (O+C)	Assigned (C only)
Jake Read	10	12
Sunny Yao	6	4
Rebecca Di Filippo	7	6
Matthew Cheung	4	4

Some issues assigned were much more complex than others, which can explain the difference in numbers.

7 Team Charter Trigger Items

Trigger Summary: Based on our team charter, the primary triggers for intervention include:

- Missing a scheduled meeting without at least 12 hours notice
- Repeated missed deadlines with little or no advance communication (more than 1–2 times)
- Consistently arriving late without notice
- Not contributing adequately or submitting low-quality work
- Disruptive behavior or conflict without an attempt to resolve collaboratively

Observed Trigger Events: No formal trigger violations occurred during this period. A few scheduling conflicts were communicated ahead of time and aligned with acceptable reasons outlined in the charter. These included:

- A member needing to leave a meeting early due to a prior communicated commitment

All instances were communicated prior to the meeting or work session and did not impact project progress.

Plan and Reflection: No corrective action was necessary, as all situations fell under acceptable charter guidelines and were handled responsibly. The team will continue to:

- Communicate scheduling conflicts in advance
- Support academic and personal commitments when reasonable
- Maintain fairness, accountability, and consistent participation

Our current triggers appear appropriate and do not require revision at this time.

8 Additional Productivity Metrics

No additional metrics were tracked during this period.
